A DESPERATE CONVICT.

He Attempts to Escape from Prison But is Shot and Captured.

The story of a startling scene which occurred in the convict camp near Atlanta, Ga., Thursday night, has just been let out by the authorities. There were 75 men in the gang among whom was J. R. McSwain, a white county in May, 1882. He was found guilty ong tried merit. Constinution, biliousness, ma larial fevers, indigestion, rheumatism and affections of the t-ladder and kidneys are among the allments which it eradicates, and it may be re-sorted to not only with confidence in its reme-dial efficacy, but also in its perfect freedom from every objectionable ingredient, since it is de-

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dip one end of a Sponge in Water and the whole will soon be saturated. So a disease in one part of the body effects other parts. You have noticed this yourself. Kidney and liver troubles, unless checked, will induce constipa-tiou, piles, Rheumatism and gravel. A timely use of Dr. Kennedy's Favortic Remedy will prevent these results. It is pleasant to the taste and may be taken freely by children and delicate females. It gives elasticity, life and checks with roses on them.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the

A Clergyman's Testimony.

W. E. Gifford, pastor M. E. Church, Bothweil Ont., was for two years a sufferer with Dyspepsia in its worst form, until as he states "life became an actual burden." Three bottles of Burdock Biood Bitters cured him, and he tells us in a recent letter that he considers it the best family medicine now before the country for dyspepsia and liver complaint. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave.

man, who was sent to prison from Tatnali county in May, 1882. He was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary. He has been trouble-some ever since, and the guards have kept a close watch upon him. On account of his dangerous character he was double shackled, his legs chained together and bound by chains to his arms. The convicts were securely housed in a stockade, which is on Old Peach Tree street, and all of them went to their rest apparently as peaceful as lambs. One of them, however, did not use night hours for sleep. This was McSwain. He managed to secrete an old case knife in his clothing. With this he began work vigorously on his shackles soon after dark. Before night was over he had cut loose the steel bands that hampered the use of his arms and legs. Still he was within the wails of the stockade. McSwain knew that every morning at 3 o'clock the guard came to call the convict cook who prepares breakfast for his fellows. He stationed himself near the door and patiently waited until at length a one-armed guard named Leonard approached. He opened the door and called the cook by name. Instantly McSwain rushed upon the door, hurled it open, and dashed past Leonard like a wild man. The guard was dazed at first but in an instant recovered hit senses and called to the flying convict to halt. He sped on and was fast making his escape. A shot-gun loaded with buckshot was within a few feet of Leonard, but a one-armed man could not handle such a weapon to advantage. New York, Jan. 27, 1884.—Messrs. Ely Brothers, Gentlemen:—My boy (3 years old) was recently taken with cold in the head which seemed finally to settle in his nose. His nose was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of your Creum Balm. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two days, and he has been o. k. ever since.—E. J. Howard.

not handle such a weapon to advantage. Leonard drew his revolver and fired. The ball entered the back of the fugitive, but massed around his ribs and lodged over his breast bone. Leonard fired twice again. One of these shots made a flesh wound in McSwain's right sade and the other merely grazed him. All the time Leonard was running after the convict as first as he could. McSwain had a considerable lead and it was hardly daybreaks but the "Suffered from rheumatism so badly had to use crutches, but three them away after apply ing Thomas' Eclectric Oil to my fimbs. McSwain had a considerable lead and it was hardly daybreak; but the guard managed to hit him every time he fired. His fourth and final shot lodged in the muscles of the convict's left arm. By this time Leonard had gained on him and the convict turned like a tiger at bay upon his pursuer. He stopped to find a rock with which to assail Leonard. When he halted Leonard closed upon him and, leveling his pistol at his head, ordered him to surrender. McSwain had no desire to test Leonard's markmanship at close range, and, after a sullen glare at his captor, gave in. He was carried, bleeding, back to the stockade.

How to Make Them 50—Keep Them in Health and They Will Take Care of the Rest.

The Joy of every well regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than culps blo neglect they suffer them to fail sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing so harmful inpredictes whatever, going straight to the blood, which when impure, is the seat and sources of disease. "Fivorite Remedy" is the triend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistake. The medicine is "Pheerite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. T. One dollar a bottle.

Good Words for a Good Thing.—Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is exactly what it claims to be, and deserves the praise that are showered upon it by all who have used it. Mr. Israel H. Snyder, of Saugerties, N. Y., says. "My little daughter was covered with Sait Rhaum from head to foot. Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy 'cared her. This was two years ago." We Are Not in the Habit of Puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, but we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondous, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Kennedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it and thus find relief from suffering no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word. For discusses of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equal. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times, Troy, N. Y. inlyl-imeod&w Steam Engine
